Statue of Unity, Saputara, Gir's lions & Beyt Dwarka — heritage, hills and coast in one circuit

About This Package

Gujarat's heritage-and-wildlife circuit runs from Ahmedabad to the Statue of Unity, up into the Saputara hills, into Gir for the Asiatic lion, and on to the twin pilgrimage towns of Somnath and Dwarka — extending to the island temple at Beyt Dwarka via the new Sudarshan Setu bridge — with the White Rann of Kutch as an optional extension during the Rann Utsav season (November–February).

Hotel tiers researched from current listings include Lords Inn (3& , Somnath), The Fern Sattva Resort or The Fern Gir Forest Resort (4& , Dwarka/Gir), and Gir Serai – IHCL SeleQtions (5& , Gir) — final hotel selection and pricing confirmed with you before booking. Starting from  ₹24,999 per person, inclusive of accommodation, daily breakfast, and inter-city transfers. Hotels, activity mix, and day count are fully adjustable — this itinerary is a starting point for the conversation, not a fixed package.

Please Note

Prices shown may change at the time of booking — this is a sample itinerary for Gujarat, not a confirmed quote. Final inclusions, exclusions, and cost will be shared by our travel consultant.

DAY 8 Departure

Transfer to the airport for your onward journey.

Top Places to Visit

Statue of Unity

The world's tallest statue, honouring Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, overlooking the Sardar Sarovar Dam.

Saputara

Gujarat's only hill station, set among the Sahyadri hills with a lake at its centre.

Gir National Park

The only home of the wild Asiatic lion, best explored on an early-morning safari.

Beyt Dwarka

An island temple town off Dwarka, now linked to the mainland by the Sudarshan Setu — India's longest cable-stayed bridge.

Rann of Kutch

A vast white salt desert that turns silver under moonlight during the Rann Utsav season.
